

Workshops and Trainings led by Ted Lewis

For Church Groups

Servanthood Communication Workshop (also Kenotic Communication re: Philippians 2)

Healing from the Heart: A Biblical Approach to Reconciliation in the Church

Reconciling Conversations: Restorative Wisdom from Matthew 18

Where Two or Three are Gathered (also on Matthew 18)

A Genesis Journey: From Rivalry to Reconciliation

The Biblical Foundations of Restorative Justice

Resolving Conflicts with the Mind of Christ

Rene Girard and Restorative Justice

For General Restorative Justice Groups

Trainings

Restorative Justice and Victim Offender Conferencing Training (16 to 24 hours. Done annually since 1999)

Advanced Training for Restorative Facilitators (3 to 16 hours)

Restorative Conferencing in Schools for Higher-level Harms (3 to 8 hours)

Restorative Lens: An Introduction to Peacemaking Dialogue (12 hours)

Workshops at Conferences:

Handling Difficult Cases and Clients in Restorative Conferencing (Madison, WI)

When to Circle, When to Conference, When to Blend, When to Sequence (Ft. Lauderdale, FL)

Restorative Practices for Church Groups (Oakland, CA)

The Power of Victim Offender Joint Dialogue (Grand Rapids, MI)

Pressing Pause and Mute: The Power of Stillness and Silence in Restorative Dialogue (Denver, CO)

Hate Crimes and Restorative Justice Opportunities (Austin, TX)

Communications and Conflict Transformation Workshop (Eugene, OR)

The Power of Apology: A Death that Gives Life (Eugene, OR)

Restorative Conversations for a Divisive Age: Exploring Biblical Foundations for Bridge-Building Styles of Communication (Calvin College)

Restorative Justice Reconciliation: Building Bridges Between Offenders and Victims of Crime (Bethel University)